

Renato Ruiz

I am currently in college to become a graphics designer.
Attending Napa Valley College from 2007 – present

I have completed these classes

- Photo 120- Introduction to photography, understanding design, photography and creative vision
- Mach 100- Machine shop practice, understanding of machine tool technology and its relationship to drafting
- DDGT 110- Technical drawing fundamentals, basic understanding of drafting
- DDGT 230- Digital architectural drafting & design, understanding of design and digital graphical representation

Skills

I am efficient in these programs

- AutoCAD – Proficient in turning parts and assemblies into drawing sets
- Inventor – Well acquainted in navigating through 3-D workspace, drawing sets and illustrating part application
- Revit – Efficient knowledge of building architecture and design
- Photoshop – Knowledge of photo touch-up and composition
- MS Word – Knowledgeable of programs functions and uses

I have a familiarity in these programs

- Illustrator – basic drawing and composition
- Dream weaver – basic understanding of website design and CSS
- 3DS Max – basic understanding of workspace, tools and design

Personal Experience

- Mac and PC savvy
- Avid gaming experience with all systems, and understanding of industry/design process